¡BIENVENIDOS A MIAMI!

Estamos encantados de organizar estos encuentros entre el cine francés y todas las personas que contribuyen a que nuestro cine exista en todos los países de América Latina. Hace varios años que estamos queriendo reunir de nuevo a los vendedores franceses y a los distribuidores de América Latina. Los recientes éxitos de nuestro cine, como Intocables en toda la zona, Dios mío, ¿pero qué te hemos hecho? en Argentina, El Principito en Brasil, La Familia Béliier en Colombia, La Bella y la Bestia en México, nos han animado a promover el cine francés en estos países que tanta atención les dedican.

La cinematografía de cada país es frágil, una propuesta variada motiva al público a ir al cine a descubrir nuevas películas. Esta es la suerte del cine francés, la de poder dirigirse tanto a un público entusiasta por las grandes producciones, como a un público de lo más exigente del punto de vista artístico. El cine francés supone una alternativa entre el cine de Hollywood y el cine local, un cine que puede proponer una visión distinta de la vida, aunque lejana en la geografía, cercana en los sentimientos y en la cultura.

Estamos convencidos de que Miami, en colaboración con el Festival Internacional, es el lugar idóneo para reunirnos y compartir nuestra pasión en común: el cine. ¡Deseamos de todo corazón que este primer mercado latino del cine francés sea todo un éxito y que se convierta en la cita obligada de nuestra agenda internacional!

Jean-Paul Salomé y Isabelle Giordano
Presidente Directora General

WELCOME TO MIAMI!

It's a great pleasure to organize this meeting between French cinema and those who help it to circulate in countries right across Latin America. For many years now, we have wanted to bring French sales companies and Latam distributors together. The recent success of Intouchables throughout the region, of Serial (Bad) Weddings in Argentina, of The Little Prince in Brazil, The Béliier Family in Colombia, and Beauty and the Beast in Mexico, encourages us to promote French films in these territories which have such a keen interest in our output.

Each nation's cinema industry is fragile, and the diversity of the offer incites spectators to discovery. French cinema is fortunate in that it can address audiences ranging from those who love blockbusters to those who enjoy more challenging artistic fare. It offers an alternative between Hollywood films and local productions, giving another view of the world – geographically distant, yet close in terms of sentiments and culture.

Along with the International Festival team in Miami, we have found the ideal place to meet with you and share our mutual passion for cinema. We hope that this first edition of the Latino market for French films is a great success, and that it finds a regular place for networking and deal-making in your busy diaries!
